

2023-2024 Lecture Series

Join us for our renowned Lecture Series on select Thursdays at 6PM from September-May

September 7th: "The Lost Town of James: The Discovery of English America's First Town "

David Givens, Director of Archaeology at Jamestown Rediscovery

October 5th: "The Historical Paint Restoration of Wilton House Museum"

Maeve Bristow, Owner of Maeve Bristow Conservation and Restoration LLC

November 2nd: "The Art of Collecting"

Ken Farmer, Art and Antiques Appraiser
In Partnership with The Antiquarian Society

January 18th: "Monumental Church: From Ashes to Accessibility"

Danielle Worthing Porter, Director of Preservation Services at Historic Richmond

February 8th: "The Menokin Descendent Initiative"

Kiana Wilkerson, Descendant Research Associate at the Menokin Foundation

March 7th: "Beyond Her Own Four Walls: Women in Preservation"

Amanda Roper, Senior Manager of Public Programs and Interpretation at Woodlawn and the Pope-Leighey House

April 11th: "By Women's Hands: Female Artistry in the Museum of Southern Decorative Arts"

Lea Lane, Curator at the Museum of Southern Decorative Arts

May 16th: "Recovering Stories of the Enslaved at Eppes Plantation"

Emmanuel Dabney, Interpretive Ranger at Petersburg National Battlefield

BRUNK
AUCTIONS

This Lecture Series is proudly sponsored by Brunk Auctions

FREEMAN'S

Receptions following each Lecture sponsored by Freeman's Auctions